TO STAY CLOSED TILL WAGES ARE CUT

New York Manufacturers Declare Workers Must Accept New Conditions

150,000 EMPLOYES OUT

Silk Mills Announce Reduction of 15 Per Cent in Pay—Big Lumber Plant Shuts Down.

New York, Nvv. 11.—The Clothing Manufacturers' Association of New York announced yesterday its shops could not be reopened until employes who are members of the Amgalamated Clothing Workers' Union agreed to new working and wage conditions "necessary to the life of the industry."

Announcement was previously made today that nearly 150,000 members of the United Hebrew Trades in New York, embracing tailors and garment workers, had been thrown out of work the past three weeks by the "steady business recession."

The announcement of the manufacturers was made after the association's market committee reported failure in negotiations with the workers. The association in closing its shop claimed new conditions were necessary to further competition in the market and laid down seven points to be inserted in a new contract.

William Bandler, president of the Manufacturers' Association, said negotiations would be opened with the union at any time they designated and that the decision of the association to keep its shops closed was in no wise a "lockout."

"Conditions have closed our shops" he added. "The public wants cheaper clothes, we want business and our employes want employment. We cannot get business until we are able to make and sell clothing in competition with other markets. Conditions must be equalized with competing centers before we can resume manufacturing"

The seven points demanded are:

1. The right of the manufacturer to install piecework.
2. Scales prevailing in other clothing markets to be the base rates for New York workers.
3. The co-operation of workers in maintaining individual records of production in shops and cutting rooms.
4. Individual standards of production for week workers in shops and cutting rooms.
5. The right of the manufacturer to change contractors.
6. Adequate freedom to discipline and hire workers and to introduce improved machinery.
7. The agreements maintained by the union in other markets in which adjustment machinery is functioning successfully to be made the basis of relationship between the association and union.

The services of about 200 operatives employed in one of the departments of the Seward Trunk and Bag Company in Petersburg, Va., were dispensed with yesterday until the first of the year.

The Susquehanna Silk Mills, Corporation, with main offices in New York yesterday announced a 15 per cent, reduction in pay. Approximately 3,500 workers in Pennsylvania are affected.

A Lawrence (Mass.) dispatch reported the shutdown of the Everett cotton mills in that city, throwing 1,600 out of employment. The mill, it is said, will resume shortly, but on a three-day basis.

From Newbern, N. C., came the news that the John L. Roper Lumber Company, one of the largest sawmills in the South, will close Friday for an indefinite period because of the lack of demand for lumber. It employs more than 1,000 men.

To Address Marines

Major General Lejeune to Speak at Quantico Sunday

Major General John A. Lejeune, Commandant of the U. S. Marine Corps, will go to Quantico, Virginia, on Sunday, November 14th, 1920, to deliver the principal address at the Armistice Day celebration of the great Marine Post there. General Lejeune will speak on the campaigns of the American Expeditionary forces in France and Germany.

During the great war, General Lejeune commanded the celebrated 2nd Division, which was composed of Marines and Army troops. He also commanded the Marine Brigade before he was made a maojr general, and previous to that, commanded a brigade of the Texas National Guard. He was regarded as one of the most brilliant and successful American Generals, and one of the most capable division commanders.

General Lejeune has been a member of the U. S. Marine Corps for more than thirty seven (37) years. He was made Commandant of the Corps on the 30th of June last, in reward for his brilliant service on the battlefields of France.

His promotion was extremely popular with the members of the Marine Corps, as General Lejeune had long been recognized as one of the most capable leaders of the American Military Forces.

General Lejeune was born in Louisiana fifty-four (54) years ago of French ancestry. He entered the U. S. Naval Academy in 1884, and upon graduation became a second lieutenant in the Marine Corps. He served in the Spanish-American War, and in practically every campaign which the Marines have conducted in the far East and tropics since that time.

Campaign Expenses

Rep. R. W. Moore Expended $1,716.30 Prior to Election

Washington, Nov. 11.—Representatives A. J. Montague, James P. Woods, T. W. Harrison and R. Walton Moore, are the only members of the Virginia delegation who have filed final campaign expense statements to date.

Judge Harrison reported a total campaign expense of $500. Representative Moore expended $1,716.30 prior to the general election and Representative Woods' campaign cost $1,204.50.

The items of expense listed were for the customary campaign activities, advertising, postage, traveling, circulars and maintenance of organization.

Representative A. J. Montague used nothing but ciphers and the word "nothing," in his statement. He testified that he had neither received nor expended a penny in his campaign for re-election.

Thanks Merchants

C. A. Harrington, Father of Twins, Given Prize Slips for Halloween Kiddies

Wearing the smile that "won't come off" and displaying the greatest of pleasure at being the recipient, on behalf of his sons, of the many valuable gifts of Alexandria merchants to the first babies born on Hallowe'e morning, Clarence A. Harrington, at the Gazette Office shortly before noon today and after identification, was handed the slips that the merchants had signed and left the office, amazed at the kindness displayed by the various stores and the Gazette.

Mr. Harrington is employed at the Potomac Yards and has been a resident of Alexandria practically all his life. He was born in Loudoun county and came here while very young. He has been employed as a clerk at Potomac Yards for some time.

Mrs. Harrington, the mother of the twin boys, who are, without doubt, receiving the first Christmas presents ever donated by Alexandria merchants, was formerly Miss Sally Cockrell.

The father of the twins authorized a statement of thanks to the merchants and to the Gazette for fostering and carrving out the gift plan and stated that the mother voiced the same opinion of the plan which has given their boys the biggest outfit of gifts ever cornered without cost.

Award Scholarships

Five Ex-Service Men Secure Prizes Given by Y. M. C. A.

The educational committee of the Y. M. C. A., met at the Westminster building last night and awarded five general scholarships to ex-service men. One was in book keeping, one in law, one in automobile mechanics, one in electrical engineering and one in salesmanship.

This makes sixteen scholarships awarded by the local educational committee of the "Y" and covers a wide field of subjects. A late ruling by the War Work Council enables the local committee to award scholorships to men still in the service and several of the marines and sailors have taken advantage of the opportunity.

William Campbell again wishes to call attention to the fact that the local committee has several hundred dollars to spend on the ex-service or service man. The money is to assist them in any educational way in residence of by correspondence. Many of the scholarships are in the United Y. M. C. A. Schools and are taken by correspondence.

Mr. Campbell, who is chairman of the educational committee, appeals to the public to put the local Y. M. C. A. in touch with any young men who might in any way be helped by the local association. Cases are constantly coming up of young ex-service men who have discontinued their education because of a lack of funds, when the local "Y" could easily have helped them over the difficult period.

CHAPLAIN MCCOY TO ADDRESS MEN

Mass Meeting Sunday After noon at Richmond Theatre

SECOND MEETING

Under Auspices of M. C. A.—Topic, "The New Offensive." Band Concert at 2:45 and Speaking at 3.

The second Y. M. C. A. men's meeting which will be held at the Richmond Theatre Sunday afternoon will be addressed by Chaplain F. M. McCoy, assistant chief of chaplains of the army. It being Armistice Sunday the meeting will take on the nature of a patriotic service.

The Citizens' band will render patriotic pieces and the American Legion is especially invited to be present. Arrangements are being made to accommodate even more men than last Sunday, when a surprise crowd was present.

Dr. McCoy, who is to speak on the subject "The New Offensive" has had a peculiar training for a speaker to men. Several years ago he was pastor of an important church in the great Northwest and had an opportunity to absorb some of the bigness of the prairie country.

He was then transferred to Baltimore and then to Washington and was there at the beginning of the war, when he went to France as chaplain. He was especially popular with the men and when he returned was asked to accept a permanent place on the staff of the Chief of Chaplains.

The meeting will begin with a band concert by the Citizen's band at 2.45 on the street in front of the theatre. At 3 o'clock the band will continue their concert in the theatre. The meeting will be for men only and admission will be by tickets. The tickets will be free and every man desiring can secure it from the several committeemen or at the Y. M. C. A. office in the Westminster Building.

FORGET BUSINESS FOR ENTERTAINMENT

Retail Merchants Enjoy Splendid Program Last Night

FOLLOWS BUSINESS

Voted Most Successful Affair—Plan To Have Similar Program During Winter Months.

"Let's have another one tomorrow night."

With a roar that fairly shook the rafters of the ceiling and reverberated from one end of the suite of rooms to the other, this was the answer that greeted the chairman of the Retail Merchant's Bureau, when he asked the 75 business men that were in attendance at the get-together session that was held in the Chamber of Commerce rooms, how they had enjoyed the efforts of the entertainment committee.

The session produced an almost startling amount of comradeship and friendliness on the part of the entire body of men present and the talent that had been provided for their entertainment was of the very best to be obtained.

The entertainment was preceded by a short business session of the bureau which was held in the Red Cross rooms and at which time several questions of importance were taken up, but which were later left to the various committees for their action. The question of signs, urging shopping in Alexandria, to be placed on the various roads leading to the city, was taken up and referred to the committee in charge with power to act.

After the business session, the members of the bureau and the visiting members of the Chamber of Commerce listened to some excellent music after which Business Manager Evans presented the first offering on the program of entertainment. This was "The Gold Dust Twins," otherwise known as Solomon and Larmon Reynolds, exponents of the art of clog and jig dancing and they were followed by Jack Mullane, a well known Washington entertainer in songs and comedy patter.

Drennan, the magician followed Mr. Mullane and he mystified his audience for perhaps a half hour, much to the amusement of the various members who tried to follow the movements of his hands, after which the big act of the program was staged and every member present was loath to allow the principals to retire when their part of the entertainment was complete.

They were Mullane and Montgomery, in comedy songs, patter and dancing and they received a great ovation from the audience and were especially tendered a vote of thanks for their efforts. The committee in charge of the entertainment also received a rising vote of thanks and the chairman stated that it was the aim of the bureau to have a similar get-together session about once each month in the future.

The success of the initial attempt has shown the members of the Retail Merchants' Bureau and the Chamber of Commerce as a whole what can be accomplished with a little additional effort on the part of the organization and these meetings are being planned as regular affairs in the future.

The entire success of the affair is due to the efforts of the chairman, Claude W. Fletcher and the members of the committee. Messrs. Fletcher and W. C. Drury spent the greater portion of Tuesday in arranging for the talent that appeared last night and the members of the Chamber of Commerce present expressed their approval of their efforts in no uncertain terms.

Following the conclusion of the program, short but interesting talks were made by Julian Y. Williams, president of the Chamber of Commerce, Carroll Pierce, who explained the part the Chamber of Commerce had taken in the securing of promises on the part of the state as regard to Little River Turnpike and other local roads, and Fred Birrell, who recently returned to this city and who is connected with the U. S. Revenue office.

Little Miss Henry received a number of pretty presents.

PUMPKIN CROP EATEN RAW BY CAVE DWELLER

Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 11.—Some thing was gnawing all the Thanksgiving pumpkins and squashes from vines in the southwest section of the city.

Neighbors started a hunt for the marauder. The vegetarian proved to be Wegarshak Grugarilok, who lived in a leaf padded cave he dug in a nearby clay bank.

Grugarilok told the police he was very fond of raw pumpkin but that fresh raw squash was his favorite dish. Raw field corn was also on his bill of fare.

Profiteering landlords were blamed by the caveman for his cramped quarters. He said he was a Bolshevik and came here from California.

URGES ARMISTICE DAY HONOR

National Commander of American Legion Issues Open Message to the Nation

New York, Nov. 11.—Calling for acclamation of Armistice day in the "spirit that made it," F. W. Galbraith, Jr., national commander of the American Legion, last night issued an open message to the nation.

"The swift triumph of our arms and those of our gallant Allies, which two years ago gave us the victory the anniversary of which we celebrate today, marks the high light of the present century in American affairs," he said. "Victories such as Armistice day commemorates are not the issues solely of clashes of flesh and steel. They are of a finer quality than that. They are triumphs as well of an unconquerable spirit.

"No victory, however complete, long can survive the spirit that conceived it. The annals of mankind are repletes with examples, splendid triumphs in behalf of splendid causes that have gone for nought because the spirit that made them ceased to endure.

"This is only the second anniversary of Armistice day—a day destined, if we will to keep company with the immortals of the calendar that mark great moments of history that shall never die. Succeeding generations will acclaim Armistice day. God grant they always shall acclaim it in the spirit that made it; and that this spirit, like the day, shall be imperishable.

"With this prayer in our hearts let us renew each year our vows of fealty, repledge and keep unshakable our faith in the high ideals, the lofty purposes, the unselfish aspirations and exalted, holy hopes that fired the hearts of Americans in 1918 and made ours a land from whence crusaders came, with souls aflame, worthy of their victory.

"To this end the American Legion today and forever, solemnly pledges its all."

Celebrations of Armistice day will mark New York's observance of the anniversary today in all parts of the greater city. Chief among the exercises will be the award of honors to 13 officers and men of American naval forces at the New York Navy Yard for distinguished war service. Decoration of soldier and sailor graves and Armistice day orations have been scheduled by hundreds throughout the metropolis.

POTOMAC FISH COMPANY will have on sale tomorrow and balance of week; Jersey trout, white lake trout, large butterfish, flounders, Potomas bass, large and medium rock, catfish, white and yellow perch, Jersey spots, Boston mackerel, steak cod. Just received 100 barrels of York River Oysters, which we will shuck fresh every day and night. Don't forget to come and try our fresh and salt water oysters as we have them. C. H. TWENTY EXTRACT DEALERS IN COURT

Grocers and Soft Drink Dealers Warned to be Cautious

GO ON EXTRACT 'JAGS'

Expected Grand Jury Will Investigate Some of the Beverages Sold as "Tonics"—Peach Extract Popular

Twenty grocers and soft drink dealers were cited to appear in the police court today to investigate their selling ginger, lemon and host of other extracts together with peach extract in big bottles and various other bottled goods for beverage purposes some of which was marked "non-intoxicating" and some of which, it is alleged, contained considerable alcohol.

The court heard the testimony in the cases of eight of the merchants, several of whom handled other than the usual line of extracts in small bottles and the other cases were grouped.

Commonwealth's Attorney Howard W. Smith appeared for the state and Justice L. N. Duffey presided.

The dealers were cautioned to sell, pending a decision, only the usual supply of vanilla and lemon extracts and to refrain from selling the other beverages and alleged tonics until the court passes upon the matter.

The sale of these articles will be presented to the grand jury which will meet in the corporation court tomorrow.

In connection with the sale of the extracts the court also asked that the dealers use judgment in their sale so as to see that persons desiring to purchase them for a "jag" do not obtain them.

A large number of bottles were taken by the police from various stores, peach extract in eight ounce bottles being the most popular, according to the number offered the court. There were quart bottles of various other concoctions.

Practically all of the dealers told the court that they purchased the goods in Washington, and one dealer said he had as many as six salesmen from different houses call on him in one week offering for sale these goods and telling him there were no laws against their sale.

It is alleged by the police that many persons here are now using these concoctions as a substitute for whisky, being driven to desperation in order to obtain the regular joy fluid and that after drinking some of these concoctions they become crazy drunk.

It is expected that the matter will be thoroughly sifted by the grand jury tomorrow morning.

Teacher Resigns

C. Madison Ray Quits High School.

The faculty of the Alexandria High School wish to express its sincere regret at having suffered the loss of Mr. C. Madison Ray as the principal of the school.

In the opinion of the faculty, the Alexandria High School and the city of Alexandria, as well, have suffered a momentous loss as Mr. Ray was not only a most efficient principal, in every sense of the world, but we recognize that he devoted his energies absolutely without stint to the duties of his office and to the services of the student body of the school.

While regretting that circumstances made it advisable for Mr. Ray to sever his connections with the High School, our best wishes for his success go with him to his new field.

Signed by all members of the faculty.

ARMISTICE DAY

We are still in doubt that the defeat of Germany near the close of the year 1918 will be recognized as the greatest victory for civilization since the Turks were driven back from Vienna. The plans of Germany were very broad, and they were expressed with brutal frankness. Bernhardi's declaration before the war that Germany must win world domination or decline, was the purpose alike of the Imperial Government and the German people.

France was to be destroyed as a first-class Power, so that, robbed of much territory in the north and south, and of all its mineral territory which the Germans overlooked in 1871, it could be no larger factor in the world affairs than Spain; probably no larger factor than Portugal. England, under German guns on the south side of the Channel and despoiled of much of its overseas dominions, would be only a minor Power. The vast empire of Russia would be subject to German dictation. There would be but two first-class Powers in the world, Germany and the United States, and the latter would have had to fight to maintain its position.

We are tolerably well acquainted now with German political ideas and military policies. The free nations would have been menaced as they would have been a century ago by the Holy Alliance if England had not withdrawn from it and if the United States had not defied it to apply its principles and purposes on the Western Hemisphere. Germany undertook to establish itself in a position comparable only with the Roman Empire in its prime.

That fate the world was delivered from by the dogged determination of England, the heroic defense of France and the intervention of the United States upon a scale that appeared impossible until it was accomplished. We intervened when Russia had collapsed and England was showing fatigue and France was beginning to show exhaustion. We did the impossible. We put 2,000,000 of the best soldiers, with the best equipment in the world, into the war, with nearly as many more in the cantonments at home, and our plans contemplated an army of 5,000,000 in France in 1919, with ample resources to continue the war as long as necessary. The enormous energy with which we entered the war not only assured the defeat of Germany, but ended the war a year before our own military authorities or those of France and England expected.

The splendid operation of our troops at St. Mihiel gave our associates and our enemy proof of what we could do. Our men had previously stopped the last German rush at Chateau-Thierry on July 15 and three days later, with the French, began the great offensive. The campaign of the Argonne and the Meuse was expected to last a year. It was finished in six weeks, and the close of that campaign closed the war, for south of Sedan our great guns had cut the main communications of the German armies.

Apropos of the Holy Alliance Canning said he had called out the New World to redress the balance of the Old. Almost a century later, and with even less of a metaphor, the New World saved the Old World from imperialism and militarism and Hohenzollern domination of the earth.

Fateful Exeps in World Story Observed Today

November 11.

A busy day in history—this November 11. It marks the anniversary of the end of the world's greatest conflict, the birth of a nation, the nativity of a king and the landing of the Pilgrims.

To-wit:

November 11, 1918—Cessation of hostilities between allied nations and Germany following signing of armistice. Second anniversary today.

November 11, 1870— Proclamation marking the establishment of the French republic. Fiftieth anniversary today.

November 11, 1869—Birth of Victor Emmanuel III, King of Italy. Fifty-first birthday today.

November 11, 1620—Pilgrims first sighted and landed on Cape Cod. Three-hundredth anniversary today.

AUSTRIANS CALL SIBERIA WAR PRISONERS' CEMETERY

Berlin, Nov. 11.—Returning Austrian prisoners reaching Stockholm describe Siberia as a "cemetery for war prisoners" in interviews in Stockholm papers. Although the war ended two years ago, there are still many thousands of German and Austrian prisoners in Siberia.

Some of the returning prisoners declare that men die in prison camps not only from privation and epidemics but as often from melancholia and from the thought that they are forgotten and forsaken.

Numerous camps are known as "death camps." The prisoners mentioned one camp where 2,500 out of 5,000 prisoners died in one year. Prisoners died so fast last winter that graves could not be dug fast enough in the deeply frozen ground. The corpses were stacked up like cordwood near the hospitals and were allowed to freeze together solidly and then buried at that spot when the thaw began.

Before the ground began to freeze this winter great numbers of graves were dug at the camps to be in readiness for the thousands who will die before spring. These yawning graves, according to the returning men, have a most depressing effect.

Air Bombs on All Big Cities Within a Year, Declares Red

New York, Nov. 11.—Sixty-one undesirable aliens, traveling in two special cars heavily guarded by immigration officials, arrived yesterday from Chicago and the Far West and were taken to Ellis Island for deportation.

One of the deportees, Paul Mozuris known to the Ellis Island authorities as a desperate radical, escaped from the immigration station last June by leaping out of a window and swimming ashore. Recaptured in Kalamazoo. Mich., he since has been a prisoner in Chicago.

Because of his alleged defiant attitude when questioned by the immigration officials concerning the Wall street explosion, Mozuris will not be hastily deported to Lithuania, but will be held for further examination by the Labor Department and the Department of Justice. Charles Paul, special agent of the Chicago branch of the immigration service, who made the arrest and brought Mozuris to Ellis Island today, made a long report on this particular case to Commissioner Wallis.

Mozuris, it is said, did not hesitate to predict that every big city in the United States "would be bombed from airplanes simultaneously" within the next year.

"He is a man of very excitable temperament when he gets to talking about plans of Communists," an officer said. "At first he said this city bombing would take place within two years, but after reflection changed his statement and said;

"Yes; it will be within the next year."

Murderer Leaps to Death

Kansas City, Nov. 11.—Fontaine B. Duval, a former coal salesman, who last January shot and killed his wife and foster son, was killed early yesterday when he leaped from a second story window of the hospital in which he was being confined. Duval's head struck the headlight of a motor car and death resulted instantly.

OIL TANK EXPLOSION WRECKS BIG FREIGHTER

New York, Nov. 11.—After a spectacular race against time down the Hudson river, surrounded by puffing tugs and fireboats and with flames licking about her forward decks the burning Morgan Line freighter El Mundo last night lay beached on the Communipaw Flats, near Ellis Island, out of the way of harbor traffic.

Thousands of spectators lined the New York and Jersey shores and watched the heroic fight of the tiny tugs to drag the burning freighter out of the river, as she was threatening to sink and block the shipping channel. The ship, a craft of 10,000 tons, is almost a complete wreck with her side torn by blasts and her forward superstructure carried away by the fire.

BRITAIN TO PAY HIGH HONOR TO WAR DEAD

Scarborough, Nov. 11.—While the guns of Dover Castle thundered out a field marshal's salute of 19 guns, the body of an unknown British warrior was brought home to England yesterday afternoon. Today the body will be buried in Westminster Abbey with the highest military honors, as a tribute to all British fighters lost during the late war.

Last night the body was in a coffin covered with a worn Union Jack, which was used in the burial of British soldiers at Vimy, Ypres, Somme, Messine Ridge, Cambria and Bethune during the war, and with a crusader's sword, presented by King George, resting upon it, remains in the Brighton South Coast Railroad station in London, guarded by a detachment of a Grenadier Guards with bowed heads and arms reversed.

KNIGHT'S GIFT OF $5,000,000 FOR WAR MEMORIAL DEFENDED

New York, Nov. 11.—National head quarters of the Knights of Columbus issued a statement here today explaining the motives actuating the organization's offer of $5,000,000 to the American Legion for the erection of a permanent war monument in Washington.

The statement was in reply to the published declaration of Marvin G. Sperry, national president of the Private Soldiers' and Sailors' Legion, that such use of funds collected by subscription for other purposes would constitute a "moral breach of trust and an act of injustice."

After completing its war work abroad and conducting educational and employment work for the benefit of farmer-soldiers in this country, the statement declared, the organization "still has funds apart from those necessary to maintain its reconstruction work, to devote to the soldiers' welfare."

"In giving this building to the nation through the American Legion, the veterans' organization of broadest constituency and largest membership" the statement added, "the Knights are providing free to the nation a monument that would otherwise be erected through taxation or another of the much dreaded 'drives.'

CARELESS OF STOLEN LIQUOR

Burglars Allow Bottles to Break And Leave an Odorous Trail.

Point Marion, Pa., Nov. 11.—More than $3000 worth of liquor in bottles was stolen from burglars raided the cellar of the Central Hotel, owned by Jules Quertinont. The bottles was stolen when burglars raided the floor and seats of an automobile and, as many were broken, a trail of whisky led from this place to Nilan, more than a mile.

Bloodhounds brought from Fairmont, W. Va., had no difficulty in following the trail, but lost it when the bottles in the automobile ceased to break. It is thought more than $1000 worth of whisky was lost along the highway.

SAYS HIS PRESCRIPTION HAS POWERFUL INFLUENCE OVER RHEUMATISM

Mr. James H. Allen suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rhematism from his system.

He freely gave his discoxery to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspopers.—\—has been appointed agent for Allenrhu in this vicinity with the unlerstanding that he will freely return the purchase money on the first two bottles they who state they received no benefits. Sold by all druggist.

Chicago Police Chief Quits Post Under Fire

Chicago, Nov. 11.—John J. Garrity chief of the Chicago police force for the past two years, today weakened under the storm of criticism fired at his head for alleged failure to rid the city of crookedness and tendered his resignation to Mayor Thompson: The resignation was accepted immediately and Charles C. Fitzmorris, private secretary to the Mayor and formerly a newspaper man, appointed to fill the vacancy.

Members of the city council, which was in session at the time the resignation was received were distinctly shocked by the news. It was said that Mayor Thompson had demanded the resignation but that only a few of the "insiders" knew of this.

"Garrity has been dropped because he could not put down crime in Chicago," was the word that was passed through the City Hall.

With the city's crime records showing a steady increase and Federal exposures of the liquor 'ring" showing large numbers of policemen implicated, pressure was brought to bear on Chief Garrity and on Mayor Thompson for a change in teh administration of the police force.

$100,000 FIRE AT SUFFOLK

Suffolk, Va., Nov. 11.—Suffolk was visited last night by a fire which did fully $100,000 damage. The peanut factories and warehousss of the Pond Brothers went up in flames

Fire was discovered in the factory. Whipped by strong winds, the flames quickly spread to the brick warehouse, which, with its costly contents of peanuts and new bags, burned.

SHOEMEN DENY BIG PRICE DROP

Washington, D. C., Nov. 11.—There have been slight reductions in the prices of shoes during the past three months and there may be further reductions from time to time as retailers here are warranted to make them, but dispatches which have been printed from other cities that all classes of shoes will drop $3 a pair are absurd.

This is the consensus of opinion among the largest shoe merchants of Washington.

MAKES BID FOR PLACE UNDER HARDING

Washington, Nov. 11.—Tennessee has not only gone Republican but gone "patronage crazy," according to advices received here. Almost everybody who voted for Harding expects to get into the Cabinet, become a bureau chief, officiate as judge or marshal or receive some other Federal office plum as soon as Harding becomes President.

Tennessee not only broke the "solid South" but also has broke all records for faith in the promise, "ask and ye shall receive." It is indicated Tennessee will ask for every job not nailed down by the civil service. Almanacs and Government "blue books," which carry the salaries attached to Federal jobs, are consulted daily by the volunteers of the Volunteer State. No job is too big nor little.

Midshipmen Resent Holiday Restriction

Annapolis, Md., Nov. 11.—Discontent is widespread among midshipmen of the three upper classes at the Naval Academy because of the provisions of the Thanksgiving holiday order which has just been announced to the regiment. Not only will they be deprived of leave to visit friends in the city on the holiday, but they will have only about half as much liberty as the members of the "plebe" or lowest class.

The order appears to have been framed in line with drastic action taken by Rear-Admiral A. H. Scales, superintendent, following the recent outbreak of hazing.

The liberty of the upper classmen is restricted entirely to the afternoon and evening before Thanksgiving, where the "plebes" will be allowed all day of the holiday. In previous years the middle have been extended privileges for the whole of Thanksgiving Day.
